

CAROL BRYAN

Co-Founder – Safe Harbour International

Carol Bryan brings a wealth of life experience, practical skills, and a deep heart for service to her role as Co-Founder of Safe Harbour International. Her diverse background includes office administration, secretarial work, homeschooling, private tutoring, and event coordination—from weddings to community gatherings. A gifted cook, she approaches hospitality as both an art and a ministry. With a natural eye for interior design and a love for plants and gardening, Carol creates welcoming spaces that inspire beauty and peace. She is deeply committed to intercessory prayer, discipleship, and building healthy lifestyles through proper diet and regular exercise. Her leadership style is both encouraging and empowering, helping others grow in their gifts and potential. Having lived in three different countries and served extensively on the mission field, Carol adapts easily to cross-cultural environments and values building genuine relationships across diverse backgrounds. She is a devoted wife, mother of three sons, proud grandmother to two granddaughters, and loving mother-in-law. Carol is passionate about strengthening families, encouraging children, and fostering community. At Safe Harbour International, her vision and compassion are central to creating an environment where individuals and families can thrive in faith, hope, and practical support.
